Land Rover Range Rover Evoque Eucalyptus Edition – 03/2022

General Overview
The Land Rover Range Rover Evoque *Eucalyptus Edition is a rare limited-edition model, with only 150 units produced worldwide. Finished in Santorini Black Metallic and enhanced by the Black Exterior Pack, it embodies a unique combination of exclusivity, sophistication, and modern British design. This special edition delivers the unmistakable Evoque presence with an extra layer of individuality.

Performance and Driving Dynamics
Equipped with a 2.0-liter turbocharged petrol engine producing 200 horsepower, the Evoque provides a perfect balance of efficiency and performance. The intelligent 4WD system works seamlessly with the automatic transmission, ensuring superior traction, control, and stability across diverse road conditions. Whether navigating urban streets or tackling adventurous routes, the Evoque guarantees confidence and refinement.

Interior and Comfort
The highlight of the Eucalyptus Edition is its exclusive Eucalyptus Green interior trim, which creates a luxurious and distinctive cabin atmosphere. Premium leather seating, advanced driver ergonomics, and finely crafted details emphasize comfort and sophistication. Practical features such as versatile seating and refined finishes make the cabin as functional as it is stylish.

Technology and Safety
This limited edition includes a wide range of modern Land Rover technologies, such as Apple CarPlay/Android Auto, premium navigation, and advanced driver-assistance systems. Key safety features include collision mitigation braking, lane-keep assist, blind-spot monitoring, adaptive cruise control, and surround-view cameras, ensuring maximum safety and convenience on every journey.

Exterior Design
The Santorini Black Metallic finish combined with the Black Exterior Pack creates a bold and elegant appearance. The distinctive Evoque silhouette, enhanced with dark styling details and premium alloy wheels, makes this edition stand out as both a luxury fashion statement and a capable SUV.
