Overview

The Porsche 718 Cayman GT4 RS PDK 12/2024 is a track-focused masterpiece engineered for pure driving performance. %READMORE% Finished in stunning Gentian Blue and equipped with the exclusive Weissach and Clubsport packages, this GT4 RS delivers motorsport-level precision, lightweight construction, and exceptional aerodynamic efficiency — now available at our Cyprus car dealership.

Performance and Driving Dynamics

Powered by a naturally aspirated 4.0-liter flat-six engine paired with a lightning-fast 7-speed PDK transmission, the GT4 RS offers breathtaking acceleration and razor-sharp response. Rear-wheel drive ensures an authentic Porsche driving experience, while the Sport Chrono Package enhances performance settings for maximum control. The Porsche Ceramic Composite Brakes (PCCB) provide outstanding stopping power and fade resistance under extreme conditions.

Interior and Motorsport Features

The Clubsport Package emphasizes track readiness with performance-oriented design and safety enhancements. The lightweight Weissach Package includes carbon fiber elements that reduce weight and improve balance. The cabin blends racing character with comfort, featuring premium materials, BOSE sound system, and modern connectivity options.

Safety and Technology

Equipped with essential safety systems including ABS, stability control, rear camera, airbags, and cruise control, the GT4 RS maintains everyday usability while focusing on performance. LED headlights with PDLs ensure optimal visibility in all driving conditions.

Exterior

The aggressive aerodynamic design is highlighted by a carbon fiber front lid and rear spoiler, large air intakes, and lightweight aluminum wheels. The Gentian Blue finish enhances the sculpted body lines, giving the GT4 RS an unmistakable presence both on the road and on the track.
